Statement of Howard Rothschild, president,
Realty Advisory Board On Labor Relations,
On Opening Session of Residential Building
Contract Talks with Local 32BJ

“As Local 32BJ has said in its own advertisement, times are tough in New York City – for everyone, including owners of co-ops, condos, and rental buildings.

“Apartment rental prices and co-op and condominium sales prices are down, and taxes and the cost of utilities have skyrocketed.

“The union has asked for a fair contract for its members. We agree. But remember, what’s fair for them has to be fair for us, as well.”
